

Strategic Plan 2016-2022

Agreed 24th November 2017

1 Introduction

1.1 The Garda Síochána Act 2005 introduced the establishment of Joint Policing Committees (JPCs)

1.2 The function of the JPCs is set out in section 36(2) of the Garda Síochána Act (2005), which states:

“The Joint Policing Committee’s function is to serve as a forum for consultations, discussions and recommendations on matters affecting the policing of the local authority’s administrative area, and in particular to –

a) keep under review –

- i. the levels and patterns of crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour in that area (including the patterns and levels of misuse of alcohol and drugs), and*
- ii. the factors underlying and contributing to the levels of crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour in the area,*

b) advise the local authority concerned and the Garda Síochána on how they might best perform their functions having regard to the need to do everything feasible to improve the safety and quality of life and to prevent crime, disorder and anti-social behaviour within the area,

c) arrange and host public meetings concerning matters affecting the policing of the local authority’s administrative area,

d) establish, in consultation with the local Garda superintendent, as the committee considers necessary within specific neighbourhoods of the area, local policing fora to discuss and make recommendations to the committee concerning matters that it is to keep under review under paragraph (a) or on which it is to advise under paragraph (b), in so far as those matters affect their neighbourhoods, and

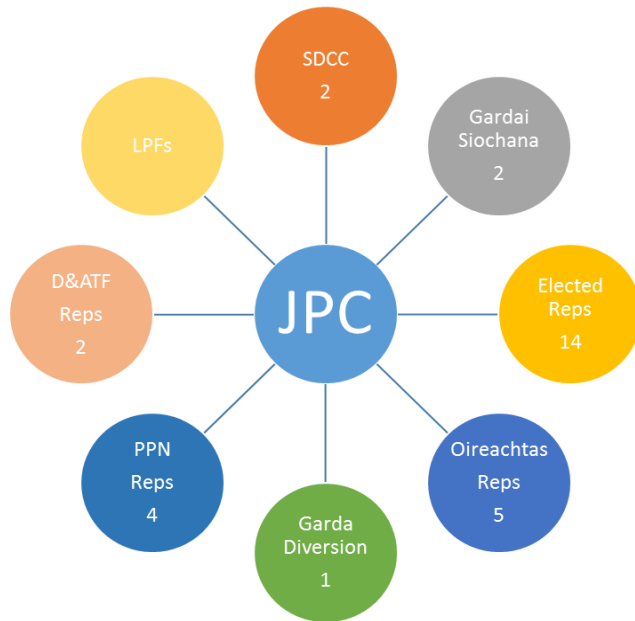

e) co-ordinate the activities of local policing fora under paragraph (d) or otherwise.”

1.3 The Garda Síochána (Policing Authority and Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 2015 which amends the 2005 Act in relation to JPCs. Section 29 of the new Act amends the 2005 Act to state that

“The Policing Authority shall after consulting with the Minister and the Minister for the Environment, Community and Local Government issue to local authorities and the Garda Commissioner guidelines concerning the establishment and maintenance of joint policing committees by local authorities and the Garda Commissioner”

2 Links to other Plans

2.1 The Links to the following plans have been considered (See Appendix 1)

- An Garda Síochána Annual Policing Plan
- South Dublin County Local Economic & Community Plan (LECP) 2016-2021

2.2 Other Plans considered are:

- A Safer Community: South Dublin County Council Road Safety Plan 2016-2020 (published August 2016 yet to be considered by the JPC)
- Clondalkin Drug and Alcohol Task Force Plan
- Tallaght Drug and Alcohol Task Force Plan

2.3 It should be noted that the current National Drugs Strategy comes to an end in December 2016 and work is underway to develop a New National Drugs Strategy for the period from 2017 onwards. Clondalkin Drugs and Alcohol Task Force are in the process of preparing a tender brief for the development of a new three year Local Drugs Strategy and a Local Alcohol Strategy 2017 – 2020 which will be finalised in 2017.

2.4 A “Framework Policy for Local and Community Development in Ireland was approved by Government in December 2015 and is an overarching high level vision for the State’s engagement with the local and community development sectors. JPCs are identified within the following objectives as having a role:

- Objective 2: Working with partners:
 - pursue an integrated “whole government” approach at central and local levels
- Objective 3: Planning for Local and Community Development:
 - Support an integrated, coherent approach through the County Local Economic and Community Plan that is adaptable to changing needs and which clearly identify the outcomes they aim to achieve
 - Ensure priorities, as set out in the relevant Local Economic and Community Plan for expenditure at local level across all community and local development programmes are based on appropriate needs analysis and matched to available resources
- Objective 4 :Delivery
 - Through the County Local Economic and Community Plan. Deliver an integrated approach to economic development and community development at local level within the local authority area

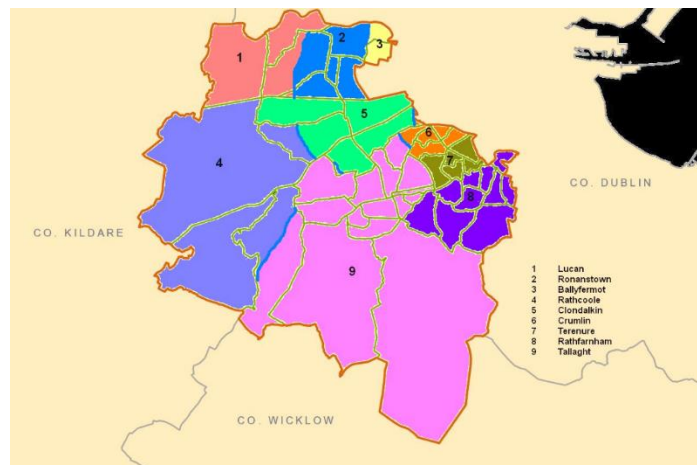

- Through the County Local Economic and Community Plan, manage the delivery of interventions that provide positive action programmes targeting those groups that are most marginalised, and support them to become involved in issues and concerns affecting themselves and their communities

Appendix 1 Links to other Strategic Plans

1 An Garda Síochána Annual Policing Plan

- 1.1 The An Garda Síochána Annual Policing Plan 2016 sets out the policing commitments of the service for the coming year.
- 1.2 The Plan encompasses the priorities for An Garda Síochána as determined by the Minister for Justice and Equality under section 20 of the Garda Síochána Act 2005. The Minister has determined the following matters as priorities for An Garda Síochána for 2016:
- Security: To protect the State and the people against terrorism in all its forms.
 - Tackling Crime: To combat serious and violent crime in all its forms, in particular organised and cross-border crime including human trafficking, as well as burglary, drug related crime, white collar crime and crimes against businesses and agriculture.
 - Policing Communities: To provide a visible, mobile and responsive policing service which meets the needs of both rural and urban communities.
 - Public Safety: To provide effective policing that ensures the public safety of our town and city centres, supports a safe and vibrant night-time economy, and tackles anti-social behaviour.
 - Supporting Victims of Crime: To support the needs of victims of crime in a manner which treats them with dignity and keeps them informed about the progress of cases relevant to them; and to generally support measures aimed at implementing the EU Directive on Victims' Rights and the Criminal Justice (Rights of Victims) legislation.
 - Reduce Re-Offending: To support a targeted, inter-agency approach to reduce recidivism; tackle serial offenders; including continued development of the Diversion Programme for young offenders.
 - Roads Policing: To reduce the number of deaths and serious injuries on our roads arising from collisions and from pedestrians failing to take appropriate care and to continue to implement the recommendations of the Garda Inspectorate Report on the Fixed Charge Processing System.
 - Domestic and Sexual Violence: To vigorously work to prevent domestic, sexual and gender-based violence, and to effectively tackle such violence when it occurs; with a view to ensuring timely responses in all cases.
 - Innovation and Efficiency: To continue to maximise the efficient and effective use of personnel and other resources; to oversee the implementation of reforms and the development of new ICT systems taking into account the recommendations of the Garda Inspectorate and to adhere, in so far as is possible, to budgetary targets across the organisation.
 - Justice Reform: To implement the policing and security elements of the Government Justice Reform Programme including support for the work of the new Independent Policing Authority.
- 1.3 The priorities relating to tackling crime, policing communities, public safety, reduce re-offending and roads policing are reflected in the JPC's Strategic Plan.
- 1.4 The An Garda Síochána Annual Policing Plan sets out its priorities for 2016 which are:
- 1 National Security & intelligence: protect our national interest, mitigate the threat posed by terrorism and contribute to international security
 - 2 National Policing: deliver a policing service focused on crime prevention, victim orientation and professional investigations
 - 3 Community Safety: improve public safety through enhanced community engagement and high visibility roads policing
 - 4 Cross Organisation Services: deliver a professional policing and security service using resources effectively and efficiently
- 1.5 A number of objectives and initiatives within the An Garda Síochána Annual Policing Plan would be reflected in the JPC's Strategic Plan including:
- 2.1. Tackle serious and violent crime in all its forms

- 2.2. Focus on the prevention and detection of crime in our communities
 - Build upon our national anti-crime strategies including Operation Thor.
- 2.6. Inter-agency offender management systems to tackle repeat offenders
 - Work in partnership to tackle repeat offenders including continued development of our Juvenile Diversion Programme.
- 3.1. Collaborate more closely with our communities to address crime, public safety and the fear of crime
 - Maximise the use of local policing fora and Joint Policing Committees.
 - Continue to reach out to, engage with and develop positive collaborative partnerships with diverse, vulnerable and hard to reach groups in the community.
- 3.2. Provide greater Garda visibility and create better opportunities to proactively prevent crime and offending in our communities
 - Promote high visibility policing
 - Continue to tackle public disorder and antisocial behaviour
 - Target the illegal consumption of alcohol in public places.

2 South Dublin County Local Economic & Community Plan (LECP) 2016-2021

2.1 Under the Local Government Reform Act (2014) each local authority is required to establish a Local Community Development Committee (LCDC) and that each LCDC produce a 6 year Local Economic and Community Plan (LECP) in partnership with the Economic Development Strategic Policy Committee. The LECP was approved by both partner committees on the 22nd October 2015.

2.2 The LECP has 14 goals:

- 1 Maintain and develop existing enterprise to support and improve the economic infrastructure of South Dublin County
- 2 Transform older industrial areas into high quality centres for enterprise
- 3 Strengthen the economic fabric of our towns and villages
- 4 Develop new and existing enterprises with significant employment, capital, income or growth potential
- 5 Improve the quality and diversity of employment in the County
- 6 Actively engage with other Authorities and Agencies in the continued economic development of the Dublin region.
- 7 Develop micro enterprise, community economic development and start-ups.
- 8 Empower our communities to improve their health and wellbeing and quality of life by providing relevant information and accessibility to quality services
- 9 Protect and enhance our environment by providing information that is accessible to all and applying the principles of sustainable development
- 10 Reduce poverty, social exclusion and disadvantage, and improve levels of income for disadvantaged communities, including children and families
- 11 Continue to improve opportunities for our people to participate in life-long learning opportunities
- 12 Develop and empower our local workforce through improving skills and increasing the accessibility of further educational opportunities
- 13 Support our communities to influence decisions that matter in their areas and lives and
- 14 Strengthen connections, cooperation and coordination between service providers and between service providers and communities

2.3 Within each goal there are a number of objectives and actions, some of these would be reflected in the JPC's Strategic Plan including:

- 8.2 Ensure high quality services are provided by increasing cooperation and collaboration
 - Develop an agreed protocol for engagement between the LCDC and existing interagency committees and collaborative groups
 - Continue to support projects which demonstrate collaboration and cooperation

- 14.1 Develop new methods of enabling service providers to share information, develop collaborative relationships and improve cooperation
- Explore the development of a protocol for engagement for all LECP collaborators

3 Clondalkin Drug and Alcohol Task Force Plan

- 3.1 Clondalkin Drug & Alcohol Task Force has a Strategic Plan for the period 2009-2016. The strategy in the Plan has a number of programmes, objectives and goals some of the goals would be reflected in the JPC Strategic Plan including:

Programme 1: Strategy for operational and organisational development

Objective 2: Continue to work effectively and in collaboration with all key stakeholders

- Develop frameworks and protocols with statutory and other agencies for effective collaboration and interagency working

Programme 2: Prevention

Programme 3: Treatment & rehabilitation: Continuum of Care

Programme 4 Supply reduction

Objective 1: To create opportunities for safe dialogue between the community and the Gardaí to explore options to address drug related crime

- To work in partnership with key agencies including the Gardaí to reduce the level of drug dealing in the area
- To create a safe environment to discuss ways of addressing drug supply and control issues
- To identify barriers and solutions to addressing drug related crime in order to inform national policy
- To highlight the links between local drug economics, underage crime and social exclusion

4 Tallaght Drug and Alcohol Task Force Plan

- 4.1 Currently being finalised

5 A Safer Community: South Dublin County Council Road Safety Plan 2016-2020

- 5.1 The Road Safety Plan 2016- 2020 identifies the key stakeholders for implementing the Plan as:

- South Dublin County Council
- Transport Infrastructure Ireland
- Road Safety Authority
- An Garda Síochána
- Dublin Fire Brigade
- National Transport Authority

- 5.2 The Plan is based on the four E's of road safety:

- Education
- Engineering
- Enforcement
- Evaluation

Appendix 4

Parks Sub Committee

1 Parks Sub-committee

- 1.1 The Joint Policing Committee established the Parks Working Group in November 2009 under Priority Area 3 of the Annual Work Programme. The purpose of the group was to review the causes and effects of antisocial behaviour in public parks and open spaces and to bring forward proposals to deter crime and anti-social behaviour.
- 1.2 The Working Group presented their report “Reclaiming our Parks” (which listed 52 actions) to the Joint Policing Committee on the 10th September 2010. The report was based around three themes:
- 1) Policing our Parks- how to enhance the policing of our parks and enforcement of laws and bye-laws
 - 2) Managing our Parks- how to reduce opportunities for anti-social behaviour
 - 3) Activating our Parks- how to increase positive use of our parks
- 1.3 The Parks Working Group in 2010 comprised
- Councillor William Lavelle (Chairman)
 - Michael Hannon, Senior Executive Parks Superintendent
 - Michelle Kearns, The Dolcain Project,
 - Inspector Mel Smyth, Clondalkin Garda Station
 - Inspector Raymond Blake, Tallaght Garda Station
- 1.4 South Dublin County Council Bye Laws for Parks and Open Spaces 2011 came into force on the 1st August 2011
- 1.5 In May 2016 it was agreed to discontinue with the Sub-committee but to monitor progress on the 52 actions regularly at the JPC.
