H. O Riain delivered a presentation focused on the integration of Ukrainians in Ireland since their arrival in 2022. She gave an overview of the current situation with the Ukraine Crisis Temporary Accommodation Team:

- The DCEDIY were tasked by government to provide short term emergency accommodation to arrivals from Ukraine in early 2022.
- Over 80,000 people from Ukraine have arrived in Ireland, with over 60,000 seeking accommodation from the state. There are also approx. 20,000 applicants of International Protection. Provision of accommodation on this scale has presented the Department with a significant challenge.
- The Department have contracted more than 47,000 beds to accommodate beneficiaries of temporary accommodation in over 750 settings. This includes hotels, hostels, guesthouses, as well as commercial settings such as repurposed office spaces and warehouses.
- Over 8,000 people are now placed in pledged/‘offer a home’ properties.
- New arrivals coming into Citywest are met by the Department of Justice to check their eligibility for temporary protection, as well as the Department of Social Protection and HSE to look at provision of PPS numbers and healthcare, respectively.
- Eligible applicants are assigned to suitable emergency accommodation. This can be anywhere in the country depending on availability.

- The procurement process for properties is driven by commercial providers who apply to the Department directly to accommodate beneficiaries of temporary protection. Applicants upload their offer of accommodation on an online portal which is reviewed and agreed.
- The government are currently developing plans for medium to long-term solutions to deal with the high numbers of arrivals. A recent survey indicated that over 40% of new arrivals plan to stay longer term in Ireland, and 32% are unsure of their plans.

Questions and comments were received from Cllr. Duff, Cllr. Dunne, Cllr. Ó Broin, and Cllr. O Brádaigh. Questions asked were in relation to the differences in legislation and treatment of Ukrainians and International Protection Applicants, the Sudanese conflict, repurposed commercial buildings, acquisition of suitable accommodation, location of accommodation for beneficiaries of temporary protection, and the medium to long-term plan for new arrivals. Questions were answered by H O'Riain, and the presentation was noted.
