

Interreg

Co-funded by the European Union

North-West Europe

RODEO

Rolling Out District Heating and Cooling (DHC) Extensively to home Owners

Energy transition

10 partners from BE, FR, IE, NL
Cooperating from 2025 - 2029

EU funding
€ 3,1 million

Total project budget
€ 5,1 million

Map: © EuroGeographics Association for the administrative boundaries (NUTS regions)

Objectives

District Heating and Cooling (DHC) is a major tool for the energy transition of city neighbourhoods, featured in many local climate plans. However, there are economical barriers to developing grids. RODEO breaks down these barriers by introducing a more participative business model that rebalances the costs, benefits and risks of developing DHC. The project will validate this innovative co-creative model in 4 pilot cities.

rodeo.nweurope.eu