Application for entry in the Supplement to the Postal Voters List by electors unable to vote at their polling station due to circumstances of their detention in a prison pursuant to an order of a court

(Please read these notes and instructions carefully before completing the form)

1. Electors who may apply for entry into the Supplement to the postal voters list:

Provided you are registered as an elector, you may apply to be entered in the supplement to the postal voters list if you are likely to be unable to go in person on polling day at an election or referendum to vote at a polling station because of the circumstances of your detention in a prison pursuant to an order of a court. You must, if required, be able to establish to the satisfaction of the registration authority that you were ordinarily resident in the State prior to your detention. (If you are not on the register of electors, you must also complete Form RFA or, after 25 November in any year in respect of the next year's register, Form RFA4 for entry on the Supplement to the Register).

2. Completing the application form:

To apply for inclusion in the supplement to the postal voters list you must complete Part A of the form.

- (a) You must give your full name and current home address as they appear on the register of electors. The current home address is the place where you would be living if you were not in prison.
- (b) If you had an address different from this immediately before you entered prison, you should also give this address. You will, therefore, be able to vote for candidates in your own local constituency.
- (c) You must also give the name and address of the prison to enable the ballot paper to be sent to you.

It is important that you sign/mark and date the application form, to make the application valid.

3. Certification of the application form and return by post:

When you have completed the form, you should hand it to the relevant official of the prison to certify that you are likely to be unable to go in person to the polling station to vote because of the circumstances of your detention in the prison. The closing date for receipt of completed application forms and associated documentation for entry onto the supplement to the postal voters list is extremely short once an election or referendum has been called. All relevant documents must reach your local registration authority in the area in which you are registered on the register of electors by the last day for receipt of applications for the supplement to the postal voters list. This is 2 days after the dissolution of the Dáil at a general election or 2 days after the making of an order appointing polling day at a Dáil bye-election.

In the case of a Presidential, European or Local election or a referendum, the latest date for receipt of applications for the supplement to the postal voters list is 22 days before polling day, excluding Sundays, Good Friday and public holidays.

If the place where you are registered is a city (i.e. Cork, Dublin, Galway, Limerick or Waterford), the form must be sent to the City Council at the City Hall. If you are registered in a county, the form must be sent to the head office of the County Council. The relevant official will arrange to have the completed documentation posted to the relevant registration authority.

4. What happens next?

If your application is received by the registration authority:

- (i) before the latest date for receipt of applications, and
- (ii) it is satisfied that you are qualified to be entered in the supplement to the postal voters list, and
- (iii) it is satisfied that your application is properly completed and certified, your name will be entered in the supplement to the postal voters list. The registration authority may require additional information or documents to decide your eligibility for inclusion in the supplement to the postal voters list. Where a registration authority seeks any additional information or documents and specifies a date within which it must be furnished, failure to do so within the specified time means that your application will be deemed to be withdrawn.

You will be notified by the registration authority of the decision on your application and, if it is refused, you will be given the reason for the refusal.

5. Method of voting by this category of postal voter:

An elector entered in the postal voters list or supplement to the postal voters list because of the circumstances of his/her detention will be sent a ballot paper and a declaration of identity before polling day. In order to vote you will be required to produce to the relevant official in the prison the envelope addressed to you, the unmarked ballot paper and a declaration of identity. You will be required to complete and sign (or mark) the declaration of identity in the presence of the relevant official, who, on being satisfied as to your identity, will witness the declaration and stamp the declaration of identity with the stamp of the prison. You may then mark the ballot paper (in secret), put it in the ballot paper envelope, put all documents in a covering envelope, seal it and hand that envelope to the relevant official who will arrange to have it posted to the returning officer as soon as possible.

6. Release from prison etc.

If your application for inclusion in the supplement to the postal voters list is granted you can only vote by post. If you are no longer in prison and still on the postal voters list, you cannot vote at a polling station unless you write to the registration authority to have your name deleted from the postal voters list. This must be done within a certain period before the holding of an election or referendum (i.e. 2 days after the date of dissolution of the Dáil at a general election or 2 days after the making of an order appointing polling day at a Dáil bye-election or a Presidential, European, local election or a referendum).

If, however, you are still on the postal voters list on the day of an election or referendum and where there is time to do so, the returning officer can re-address the envelope (containing the ballot paper etc.) to you at your home address on receipt of the returned envelope from the prison authorities. In these circumstances, you can vote at a Garda station. (To do this, you must go in person to a Garda station and produce to a member of the Garda Síochána the envelope addressed to you, the unmarked ballot paper and the declaration of identity. You will be required to complete and sign or mark the declaration of identity in the presence of the Garda and hand it to the Garda. If the Garda is satisfied as to your identity he or she will witness the declaration and stamp the declaration of identity with the stamp of the Garda station. You may then mark the ballot paper (in secret), put it in the ballot paper envelope, put all documents in a covering envelope, seal it and return that envelope by post to the returning officer. In these circumstances the onus is on you to ensure that the envelope is posted to the returning officer in good time.)

If you have been transferred to another prison, the prison authorities can re-address the envelope to you in the new prison where you can vote. If you are no longer in prison, they can re-address the envelope to the returning officer, who will forward it to your home address, where appropriate.

IT IS AN OFFENCE TO APPLY FOR ENTRY IN THE POSTAL VOTERS LIST IN THE NAME OF ANOTHER PERSON.

WHERE AN ELECTOR ENTERED IN THE POSTAL VOTERS LIST CEASES TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR ENTRY THEREIN (IS NO LONGER IN PRISON AND IS THEREFORE INELIGIBLE TO VOTE BY POST), HE OR SHE SHOULD NOTIFY THE REGISTRATION AUTHORITY.
