Pin Your Pride !

South Dublin Libraries are pleased to announce the Pin Your Pride programme for the month of June. This initiative celebrates the principles of diversity, equality and representation at the heart of the public library service.

Beginning on Thursday June 1st, we are encouraging everyone aged 12+ to drop into their local branch and collect the first of four unique badges.

Collect a different badge each Thursday. They are bound to become a collector's item!! If you are not already a library member, make sure to join and take advantage of our fantastic range of services.

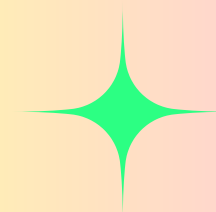

Keep an eye out in our library branches for specially curated displays of LGBTQI+ stock!

Talking Pride

LGBTQI+ Friendly Bookclub for Adults: Real Life by Brandon Taylor

Ballyroan Library. 21st June 6.30pm

Real Life is the 2020 debut novel of Alabama-born American writer Brandon Taylor. Described as a campus novel and coming-of-age novel, the partly autobiographical book tells of the experiences of a gay, black doctoral student in predominantly white, midwestern PhD program. 2020 Booker Shortlist.

Booking essential at ballyroanlibrary.eventbrite.com

A Queer History of Dublin with historian Tonie Walsh

Clondalkin Library. 22nd June 6.30pm

This year marks the 50th anniversary of LGBT civil rights in Ireland. Places of resistance, tools of communication and the emergence of a social and recreational scene have all been paramount in getting us to the place we find ourselves in today, the beneficiaries of a more inclusive social dispensation.

Activist and historian, Tonie Walsh, trawls this half century of highs and lows, outlining these processes that have enabled a once vilified and outlawed LGBT community to take its place at the centre of Irish society.

Booking essential at clondalkinlibrary.eventbrite.ie from 1st June.

Shared Reading

North Clondalkin Library. 20th June 3.00pm

Read, relax and explore, as we chat and read extracts on diversity, equality, inclusion.

Free event open to adults.

Living with Pride: a photographic exhibition by Christopher Robson

Tallaght Library. 1st - 30th June.

Christopher Robson was a photographer and activist who captured many of the key moments, protests, and marches in the struggle for LGBT rights in Ireland and internationally in a glorious collection of photographs. Thanks to the National Library of Ireland (which received a donation of Christopher's slides from his civil partner Bill Foley in 2015) Tallaght library is proud to present a specially reprinted version of the original exhibition held in the National Library of Ireland in 2021. You can view this exhibition throughout the month of June in the main exhibition area.
