

Casual Trading

Casual Trading means selling goods at a place (including a public road) to which the public have access as of right and any other place that is a designated Casual Trading Area.

Casual Trading is regulated by the South Dublin County Council Casual Trading Byelaws 2026.

It is an offence to trade without a Casual Trade Licence and anyone wishing to engage in Casual Trading within the administrative area of South Dublin County Council must therefore apply to the Council for a Casual Trading Licence.

Casual Trading is divided into designated Casual Trading Areas and Event Trading with appropriate fees payable, and casual trading is prohibited in areas other than those designated in the South Dublin County Council Casual Trading Byelaws 2026.

Revocation of Casual Trading Area

Under Regulation 20 of the Casual Trading Byelaws 2026 – The Council reserves the right to revoke by executive order the designation of a Casual Trading Area for operational or other reasons.

Provision to trial new designated Casual Trading Areas

Under Regulation 22 of the Casual Trading Byelaws 2026 – The Council reserves the right to establish additional Casual Trading Areas on a trial basis, by Chief Executive Order. These Casual Trading areas may be added to the First Schedule permanently, subject to demand, site specification, and approval from the relevant Area Committee.
