Clondalkin is a well connected, thriving, diverse village with a strong and visible cultural, environmental and built heritage, where independent local businesses are supported and open, green spaces are accessible and well maintained.

A strong community spirit is nurtured through the provision and use of community spaces, amenities and facilities that are accessible to people of all ages and abilities.

Clondalkin is well connected with a well maintained and comprehensive public transport and cycle network, making it an easy place to get around, live, work and play.
