GUIDANCE NOTES

A licence from the planning authority must be obtained before erecting, constructing, placing or maintaining any of the following on, under, over or along a public road:

- a vending machine;
- a town or landscape map for indicating directions or places;
- a hoarding, fence or scaffold;
- an advertisement structure;
- a cable, wire or pipeline;
- overground electronic communications infrastructure and any associated physical infrastructure;
- a telephone kiosk or pedestal; or
- any other appliance, apparatus or structure prescribed by regulations as requiring a licence under the Planning and Development Act 2024.

For the purposes of the Planning and Development Act 2024, 'public road' has the same meaning as in the Roads Act 1993. Section 2 of the Roads Act 1993 defines a public road as 'a road over which a public right of way exists and the responsibility for the maintenance of which lies on a road authority'.

Applications cannot be processed unless accompanied by the documents listed below, including the relevant fee.

A person applying for a Section 13 Licence must furnish such plans and information concerning the position, design and capacity of the appliance(s) / apparatus / structure(s) / sign(s). Such plans and information shall include:

- completed licence application form;
- site location map to scale of 1:2500;
- site layout plan showing location of proposed appliance(s) / apparatus / structure(s) / sign(s);
- drawing to scale of proposed appliance(s) / apparatus / structure(s) / sign(s);
- copy of valid insurance policy covering the period of licence being sought, indemnifying South Dublin County Council against claims arising out of any accidents to persons or property must be provided;
- written legal consent of the landowner;
- colour scheme of proposed appliance(s) / apparatus / structure(s) / sign(s) - Advertising signs are to be in accordance with Fáilte Ireland specifications;
- the appropriate licence fee.
