EXPLANATORY NOTES

PLEASE READ NOTES BELOW BEFORE COMPLETING THE FORM

A licence must be obtained in order to erect, construct, place or maintain any of the following on, under, over or along a public road

- A vending machine
- A town or landscape map for indicating directions or places
- A hoarding, fence or scaffold
- An advertisement structure
- A cable, wire or pipeline
- Overground electronic communications infrastructure and any associated physical infrastructure
- A telephone kiosk or pedestal
- Any other appliance, apparatus or structure, which may be prescribed as requiring a licence under this section of the Planning and Development Act 2000 (as amended).

Section 2 of the Planning and Development Act 2000 (as amended) states that “public road” has the same meaning as in the Roads Act, 1993. Section 2 of the Roads Act 1993 states: “public road” means a road over which a public right of way exists and the responsibility for the maintenance of which lies on a Road Authority”.

A person applying for a licence must furnish with the application form such plans and information concerning the position, design and capacity of the appliance, apparatus or structure. Such plans and information should include:

- Completed licence application form
- Site Location Map - 1/2500 scale
- Site Layout Plan showing location of proposed appliance(s)/apparatus(s)/structure(s)
- Drawing to scale of proposed appliance(s)/apparatus(s)/structure(s)
- The appropriate Licence Fee
- Copy of Insurance Confirmation indemnifying South Dublin County Council against claims arising out of any accidents to persons or property.
- Written legal consent of the landowner.

The Planning Authority may grant a licence for a specified period and subject to conditions.

The decision of the Planning Authority can be appealed to An Bord Pleanala.

Where in the opinion of the Planning Authority that due to the:

- Increase or alteration of traffic on the road
- Widening of the road
- Any improvement to the road
- The appliance, apparatus or structure causes an obstruction or becomes dangerous, the authority may, by notice in writing, withdraw the licence and require the licensee to remove the appliance, apparatus or structure at their own expense.

Article 202 – Fees for Licences under Section 254 of the Act

(1) Where a licence is granted by a planning authority under section 254 of the Act—

(a) to erect, construct, place and maintain, or

(b) to maintain,

a specified appliance, apparatus or structure referred to in Part 1 of Schedule 12, the amount of the fee to be paid to the planning authority shall, subject to the provisions of Article 203, be:

- (i) where the licence is for a period of one year, the appropriate amount indicated in column 2 of that Schedule opposite the reference in column 1 of that Schedule to the specified appliance, apparatus or structure,
- (ii) where the licence is for a period of more than one year, an amount equal to the fee for one year for each year or part of a year for which the licence is granted, and
- (iii) where the licence is for a period of less than one year, an amount equal to one tenth of the fee for one year for each month or part of a month for which the licence is granted.

(2) Where a licence is granted by a Planning Authority under Section 254 of the Act to erect, construct, place and maintain a specified appliance, apparatus or structure referred to in Part 2 of Schedule 12, the amount of the fee to be paid to the planning authority shall be the amount indicated in column 2 of that Schedule opposite the reference in column 1 of that Schedule to the specified appliance, apparatus or structure, and no fee shall be payable in respect of any renewal of a licence for such an appliance, apparatus or structure.
