A Queer History of Dublin by historian Tonie Walsh

Thursday 22nd June

6.30 pm—7.30pm

This year marks the 50th anniversary of LGBT civil rights in Ireland.

Places of resistance, tools of communication and the emergence of a social and recreational scene have all been paramount in getting us to the place we find ourselves in today, the beneficiaries of a more inclusive social dispensation.

Activist and historian, Tonie Walsh, trawls this half century of highs and lows, outlining these processes that have enabled a once vilified and outlawed LGBT community to take its place at the centre of Irish society.
