Ireland Reads is a new national campaign to encourage as many people as possible to get reading. The campaign will run throughout February, culminating with Ireland Reads Day on February 25th.

Ireland Reads is about promoting the power of reading for enjoyment and wellbeing. The aim is to encourage everyone, young and old, to get back into the habit of regularly setting aside time to sit and read a book, a poem, a comic, a newspaper, whatever works for them!

We want everyone to #squeezeinaread – visit www.irelandreads.ie and pledge the amount of time you will spend reading on Ireland Reads Day February 25th!

Emotion in Poetry with Anne Tannam

Thursday February 25th at 7pm

According to Billy Collins, 'A poem is an emotion'. During this webinar we'll look at the role emotion plays in poetry, and the role poetry plays for us in understanding our emotions.

Anne Tannam is a Dublin poet who has published three collections, Take This Life, Tides Shifting Across My Sitting Room Floor. Her new collection Twenty-six Letters of a New Alphabet is forthcoming with Salmon Poetry in 2021.

Animal Crackers with Alan Nolan

Saturday February 27th at 12 noon

If you love animals, stories and drawing, this is perfect for you!

Join author and illustrator Alan Nolan for a fun hour of crazy animal facts, drawing and storytelling for all the family. Alan Nolan's latest books, Sam Hannigan and the Last Dodo, and Animal Crackers (with Sarah Webb) are both out now. Perfect for 7 – 12 year olds but all the family can join in!

New! Online Book Club for Children

Do you love to read? Do you love talking about books? Are you age 9-12?
Then you'll love our brand new Children's book club!

Every month author Juliette Saumande will host our junior book club via Zoom and give kids a chance to talk about all things books. The first book we'll be reading and discussing together is The Extremely Inconvenient Adventures of Bronte Mettlestone by Jacklyn Moriarty and everyone who signs up will get a copy of the book to keep.
