Classroom Novels: Annotated List

September 2019

25 - 30 copies of each title available for a 2 month loan to schools located in the South Dublin County Council catchment area.

Please contact South Dublin Libraries Headquarters on 01-4597834 or by email (<mailto:bookclubs@sdblincoco.ie>) for more information.

A Synopsis of the Classroom Readers Service:

A Primary School level reading service set up to allow a set of 25-30 books to be borrowed by a Primary School/Class located within the South Dublin County Council catchment area for a period of 60 days(2months). The service provides a selection of over 100 titles to choose from, with a diverse range of novels that cater for pupils from Junior Infants right through 6th class.

How the Classroom Readers Service Operates:

All books/sets are issued onto a Classroom Readers Library card under the school's name so that no one teacher is responsible for the set on their own personal library card. This in turn also allows multiple sets to be borrowed by the same school at the same time (the max is 4 sets at any one time). Once issued the books are delivered out to the school by one of South Dublin County Council's Mobile Library drivers. The Mobile Library drivers will also be available to collect the sets from the school after the 60 day loan period is up.

Items to Note When Using the Classroom Readers Service:

- School's must be located within the South Dublin County Council catchment area.
- The loan period for all sets is 60 days (2months). Unlike normal library items Classroom Reader sets are not renewable or reservable.
- The service operates on a first come first served basis. We advise you choose 6 titles in order of preference when making your choices.
- When sets are delivered please sign and return tracking sheet provided to the Mobile Library driver.
- Class and/or age suitability of books are given only as a guide.
- For further information please contact South Dublin Library Headquarters on 01-4597834 or by email (<mailto:bookclubs@sdublincoco.ie>)

Class and/or age suitability are given as a guide only to teachers.

Adam's Starling, Gillian Perdue

Amelia, Siobhán Parkinson (Book 1 in series)

The year is 1914 and Amelia Pim will soon be thirteen. There are rumours of war and rebellion, and Dublin is holding its breath for major, dramatic events. But all that matters to Amelia is what she will wear to her birthday party and how she can be the envy of her friends. But where are Amelia's friends when disaster strikes her family? Now that the Pims have come down in the world, what use will Amelia have for a shimmering emerald-green dress? When Mama's political activities bring the final disgrace, it is Amelia who must hold the family together. Only the friendship of the servant girl MaryAnn seems to promise any hope...
For 5th and 6th classes.

No Peace For Amelia, Siobhán Parkinson (Book 2 in series)

It's 1916 but Amelia Pim's thoughts are on Frederick Goodbody and not on the war in Europe. Then Frederick enlists. The pacifist Quaker community is shocked but Amelia is secretly proud of her hero and goes to the quayside to wave him farewell. For her friend MaryAnn, there are problems too, with her brother's involvement in the Easter Rising. What will become of the two young men and what effect will it have on the lives of Amelia and MaryAnn? For 5th and 6th classes.

Anne Frank: The Diary of a Young Girl, Anne Frank

In July 1942, thirteen-year-old Anne Frank and her family, fleeing the occupation, went into hiding in an Amsterdam warehouse. Over the next two years Anne vividly describes in her diary the frustrations of living in such close quarters, and her thoughts, feelings and longings as she grows up. Her diary ends abruptly when, in August 1944, they were all betrayed. For 5th and 6th class pupils.

Apple and Rain, Sarah Crossan

When Apple's mother returns after eleven years of absence, Apple feels whole again. She will have an answer to her burning question - why did you go? And she will have someone who understands what it means to be a teenager - unlike Nana. But just like the stormy Christmas Eve when she left, her mother's homecoming is bitter sweet, and Apple wonders who is really looking after whom. It's only when Apple meets someone more lost than she is, that she begins to see things as they really are. Suitable for 5th and 6th class.

Arrivals, Brian Gallagher

In 1920s Canada, a summer of fun for three friends is destroyed by a frightening crime. Almost a century later, teenager Ciara Farrelly visits her dead grandfather's Ontario home and tries to solve the mystery surrounding it. Suitable for 4th to 6th class.

Begone the Raggedy Witches, Celine Kiernan

From multi-award-winning Irish author Celine Kiernan comes a dark fantasy adventure about witches.

On the night that Aunty dies the Raggedy Witches come for Mup's Mam. Pale, cold, relentless, they will do anything to coax Mam back to Witches Borough. When they kidnap Mup's Dad, Mup and her Mam must leave the mundane world to rescue him. But Mam is strange on this side of the border - striding, powerful, and distant. Even if they can save Dad, Mup is not sure anything will ever be the same again. Suitable for 4th class onwards.

Beyond the Cherry Tree, Joe O'Brien

When Josh Bloom and his friends visit Cherry Tree Manor on a school trip what really interests the class is the mystery about the manor's owner, General Edgar Pennington, who disappeared exactly twelve years before. Everyone hopes to find a clue to where the general has gone. Then Josh discovers something in the manor library that sends him on an adventure of a lifetime – to the land beyond the cherry tree.

Josh's quest is one of magic, danger and excitement, true friends and terrifying enemies; a quest to fulfil his own destiny. But will he ever return from beyond the cherry tree? Suitable for 4th to 6th classes.

Bill's New Frock, Anne Fine

Bill Simpson wakes up to find he's a girl, and worse, his mother makes him wear a frilly pink dress to school. How on earth is he going to survive a whole day like this? Everything just seems to be different for girls . . .

Suitable from 1st class onwards.

Blazing a Trail, Sarah Webb & Lauren O'Neill

A book for everyone who dreams of changing the world. From fearless aviator, Lady Mary Heath, the first woman in the world to parachute from an aeroplane, to Margaret Bulkley, the 18th-century surgeon who lived as a man, meet 28 remarkable Irish women who have taken the world by storm. You may have already heard some of their names, like Countess Markievicz and Mary Robinson, but others, like Anne Sullivan, Lilian Bland or Anna Haslam, may be new to you. Packed with fun, fascinating facts and stunning, full-page illustrations, this book celebrates the trail blazers who have shaped the world we live in.

Ready to walk in their footsteps? A world of bravery and discovery awaits you! Made by two remarkable women, author Sarah Webb and illustrator Lauren O'Neill.

Suitable from 3rd class onwards.

Boy in the Striped Pyjamas, John Boyne

This is Irish author John Boyne's first children's book. It is a haunting tale of the Holocaust as seen through the eyes of nine year old Bruno, the son of the German commander of a concentration camp. In the summer of 1943 this nine-year-old boy moves from his comfortable life in Berlin to Poland, where his father has an important new job. Bored and resentful, Bruno wonders why there are no windows on one side of his house. Why too is he forbidden from visiting something outside only referred to as "the fence"? A movie of the same title was released in 2009. This is a 6th class read.

Boys United, Tom Palmer

The first book in the Football Academy series follows Jake who dreams of becoming a professional footballer but worries that he may be too small. When Jake is successful at the trials for United's under-twelves, he can't wait to pull on his shirt and join the team. But someone at the club wants to make his life difficult. Can Jake face up to the bullies and become man of the match again? A great read for boys in 2nd to 4th classes.

Bridge to Terabithia, Katherine Paterson

It was the new girl, Leslie, who invented Terabithia, a magical kingdom in the woods beyond the dry creek bed. Here, Jess is king; he is strong, unafraid and unbeatable. Then one morning a terrible tragedy occurs. Only when Jess is able to come to grips with this tragedy does he finally understand the strength and courage Leslie has. Suitable for 4th to 6th class.

The Bubble Boy, Stewart Foster

Eleven-year-old Joe can't remember a life outside of his hospital room, with its beeping machines and view of London's rooftops. His condition means he's not allowed outside, not even for a moment, and his few visitors risk bringing life-threatening germs inside his 'bubble'. But then someone new enters his world and changes it forever.

The Bubble Boy is the story of how Joe spends his days, copes with his loneliness and frustrations, and looks - with superhero-style bravery, curiosity and hope - to a future without limits. Expect superheroes, super nurses and a few tears from this truly unique story.

Suitable for 5th and 6th class.

The Butterfly Lion, Michael Morpurgo

The Butterfly Lion tells the story of a boy running away from school who meets an old lady. She tells him a wonderful story about a boy called Bertie, who finds a white lion cub in Africa. Bertie is sent away to boarding school in England and the lion cub is sold to a French circus man. Bertie vows never to forget his friend. The book follows Bertie's journey through the First World War and his search for and eventual reunion with the lion. Heartened by the woman's tale, the student returns to school. This adventure story demonstrates the values of courage and friendship and of keeping promises. It is suitable for 3rd class onwards.

A Cage of Roots, Matt Griffin

Magic exists beneath our feet, if we only know where to look. Growing up in a New York orphanage, Ayla has no idea she has Irish roots. It is not until she comes to Ireland that she finds out just how deep her roots really are...

Suitable for 5th and 6th class.

Candle in the dark, Adele Geras

Set at the brink of the Second World War, this is the story of two Jewish children who have to travel from Germany to England by the 'Kindertransport'. It tells of their experiences of life in a strange country with a new family and of their fear of never seeing their parents again. 4th and 5th class.

The Cat and the King, Nick Sharratt

The Cat and the King, tells the story of a gentle, unworldly King and his very clever cat, and is illustrated throughout in two colours with Nick's irresistible wit and humour. The cat and the King must find a new home after their castle burns down in an unfortunate incident with a dragon.

They choose Number 37 Castle Close, and the cat introduces the King to all sorts of new experiences, from washing-up to shopping. Then danger looms when the pesky, fire-breathing dragon makes its return. Suitable for 2nd class onwards.

Cave of Secrets, Morgan Llywellyn

When Tom feels rejected by his father, he finds a secret second family among the group of smugglers who trade in and around Roaringwater Bay. Though Tom doesn't know it, his family in the Big House is under huge pressure. His father has had savage losses in business; his mother is always sad and worried, and his sisters have no hopes for a good future. This is seventeenth-century Ireland when cut-throat interests control everybody and everything, and land-grabbing is the order of the day. Friend turns into foe, and loyalty counts for nothing. From his new family, Tom learns all about boats and smuggling – and secret treasure. And then Tom discovers the best-kept secret of all...

Suitable for 5th and 6th class.

Charlotte's Web, E.B White

A magical story of how a little girl named Fern saves her pig Wilbur from the usual fate of nice fat little pigs. She is helped by a friendly spider, Charlotte. One of the best selling books in publishing history, this book covers themes such as friendship, sadness, the passing of time and how the simple things in life are often the most pleasing. This classic will appeal in the main to girls but all children should be encouraged to read it. It also works well as a read aloud book. 3rd and 4th class.

Brothers Robert and Daniel Sherrard march south from the once-besieged city of Derry with King William's army. The chosen field of battle – the Boyne – lies waiting, where victory will decide who rules the lands of England, and of Ireland. And the fighting will decide who survives the deadly game of war. Suitable for 5th and 6th classes.

Knights of the Borrowed Dark, Dave Rudden (Book 1 in series)

The first book in a new series. Denizen Hardwick is an orphan, and his life is, well, normal. Sure, in storybooks orphans are rescued from drudgery when they discover they are a wizard or a warrior or a prophesied king. But this is real life—orphans are just kids without parents. At least that's what Denizen thought.....

On a particularly dark night, the gates of Crosscaper Orphanage open to a car that almost growls with power. The car and the man in it retrieve Denizen with the promise of introducing him to a long-lost aunt. But on the ride into the city, they are attacked. Denizen soon learns that monsters can grow out of the shadows. And there is an ancient order of knights who keep them at bay. Denizen has a unique connection to these knights, but everything they tell him feels like a half-truth. If Denizen joins the order, is he fulfilling his destiny, or turning his back on everything his family did to keep him alive? Perfect for 5th and 6th class readers.

The Forever Court, Dave Rudden (Book 2 in series)

The second book in the brilliant Knights of the Borrowed Dark trilogy,

Life is returning to normal for Denizen Hardwick. Well, the new normal, where he has to battle monsters in quiet Dublin bookshops and constantly struggle to contain the new powers he has been given by Mercy, the daughter of the Endless King. But Denizen may need those powers sooner than he thinks - not only are the Tenebrous stirring again but the Order of the Borrowed Dark face a new threat from much closer to home...

Perfect for 5th and 6th class readers.

The Endless King, Dave Rudden (Book 3 in series)

The final book in the award-winning Knights of the Borrowed Dark trilogy.

There's nothing like an apocalypse to kick off the school year. Denizen Hardwick has travelled to Daybreak, the ancestral home of the Order of the Borrowed Dark, to continue his training as a knight. But lessons have barely begun before an unexpected arrival appears with news that throws the fortress into uproar. The Endless King has fallen, his dark realm rising in a brutal civil war. When the conflict strikes closer to home, Denizen and his friends face their greatest challenge yet. For if Daybreak falls, so does the world! Perfect for 5th and 6th class readers.

The Little Black Sheep, Elizabeth Shaw

This charming book tells the adventures of an outcast little black sheep: how he saved the whole flock in a snowstorm, put Polo the bossy sheepdog in his place - and gave the shepherd a great idea! Fine line drawings illustrate this simple and memorable story. A story about being different, and being a hero. Perfect for beginner readers!

Love, Lucie, Marita Conlon-McKenna

Love, Lucie has all of the same ingredients as Marita Conlon-McKenna's other successful stories: a family setting, siblings coping with emotional upheaval, and exceptionally warm writing about harrowing events. This title is set in a modern era in contemporary middle-class Dublin. The novel follows a year in the life of 10-year-old Lucie and is told in the form of letters to her mum who has just died.

Young readers, especially girls, will respond to Lucie's situation and sadness with sympathy. They will also love this window into another family and its everyday mechanics: cooking meals, door slamming, music lessons, visiting the dentist -- albeit without Mum being around. Ages 10-12.

The Magnificent Toby Plum, Deirdre Ryan and Deirdre Cowman

Toby Plum wishes he could be just like everybody else but everything changes when a funny little creature appears at his window. When Toby goes on his magical adventure he learns that the world around us is full of magnificent differences. He learns to appreciate the things that make him unique and special and stops comparing himself to other people.

After all, life would be pretty boring if we were all the same! This book promotes positive body image to primary school children and teachers and parents will find resources to accompany it at www.magnificentlyu.com. The subject matter could be covered in any class from 2nd to 6th.

Matilda, Roald Dahl

Matilda Wormwood is misunderstood by her parents since the day of her birth. Matilda is an exceptional, gifted, and almost supernatural child born to very average, unintelligent, and unimaginative parents. Matilda's parents have called her some terrible things. The truth is, she's a genius and they're the stupid ones. Find out how she gets the better of them and her spiteful headmistress, as well as discovering that she has a very special power.

Boggle hats are the latest thing. Everybody at school wants one - but only Lola, expert parent-nagger, actually has one. So she decides to form a club to show the other children how best to nag their parents into buying them one. However, when the children try some of these nags out, they get mixed results - and discover that the best way of all is either just to be pleasant and polite and say please, or even earn a bit of money and buy one for themselves! This is an enjoyable read with a worthwhile message suitable for 7 to 9 year olds.

Name Upon Name, Sheena Wilkinson

Belfast in 1916. Fourteen-year-old Helen is shaped by her mixed background – rural, Catholic Irish values from her mother; urban, Protestant Ulster values from her father. Helen's older cousins are her idols: Sandy, who joined the army straight from school and has already seen action in France, and Michael, who runs away from home to enlist. But before he leaves for France, Michael is deployed to Dublin to help quell the Rising, where he's expected to open fire on his fellow Irishmen, and Sandy writes home about terrible things on the front. What exactly are they fighting for? For 5th and 6th Classes.

1916 I Saw It All, Karen Farrelly Tazi

Set in Boland's Bakery, in Dublin's Grand Canal Dock, 1916 I Saw It All, tells the story of Mathew Farrelly, who is caught in the crossfire of the Easter Rebellion, with only his beloved bay mare to comfort him. Mathew is concerned about his mother's safety, being uncertain whether she is attending the wounded in Hanlon's Fishmongers in Moore Street or fighting alongside the rebel soldiers in the GPO. This young boy's account of the Rising of 1916 is set against a backdrop of key figures of the rebellion: Countess Markievicz, Commandant de Valera, Nurse Elizabeth O'Farrell, and Michael Walker, Ireland's Olympic cyclist.

Time After Time, Judi Curtin (Book 1 in series)

Molly and Beth are best friends and love spending time together. But when their two families move in together, maybe they are a little too close for comfort! Out shopping one day they need to avoid the most embarrassing encounter ever with Molly's mum, and hide in a shop they had never noticed before. When they leave by the side door, they realise immediately that something is not right! Transported back to the past, where mobile phones don't work and the world feels very different, they realise that they have a chance to see the world through their parents' eyes. Before finding their way home, can they see what their own pasts looked like? Suitable for 4th class onwards.

Stand By Me, Judi Curtin (Book 2 in series)

In the second book in the Time After Time series our favourite time-travelling best friends are back! What if something happened long ago that still makes you sad? Graham is Molly and Beth's favourite uncle, so they really want to help him fix the past – and since the girls know of a mysterious door that can take them back in time, maybe they can! But how can they find who they're looking for without apps or social media? And what will the girls make of the 60s, where the hairstyles are wild, the slang is weird and no one's heard of ciabatta? And can they help Graham fix a friendship that was destroyed back in 1960? The girls soon discover that fun with friends is just the same whatever time you live in and that real friendship lasts forever – even when you're apart. This is an exciting story about time-travel, family, friendship and love. Suitable for 4th class onwards.

The Twits, Roald Dahl

Mr. and Mrs. Twit are two of the most disgusting, nasty, and horrid characters in children's literature. They look repulsive and play mean and horrible tricks on each other. This book will appeal to children of all ages because it is well written and even though there is some complex language this does not detract from the story. The book is made up of a whole series of 'nasty' jokes which boys of a particular age will enjoy but hopefully not get too many ideas. Suitable for 2nd class onwards.

Wonder, R.J. Palacio

August Pullman was born with a facial difference that, up until now, has prevented him from going to a mainstream school. Starting 5th grade at Beecher Prep, he wants nothing more than to be treated as an ordinary kid--but his new classmates can't get past Auggie's extraordinary face. Wonder, a #1 New York Times bestseller, begins from Auggie's point of view, but soon switches to include his classmates, his sister, her boyfriend, and others. These perspectives converge in a portrait of one community's struggle with empathy, compassion, and acceptance. In a world where bullying among young people is an epidemic, this is a refreshing new narrative full of heart and hope. R.J. Palacio has called her debut novel "a meditation on kindness" --indeed, every reader will come away with a greater appreciation for the simple courage of friendship. Auggie is a hero to root for, who proves that you can't blend in when you were born to stand out. Suitable for 5th and 6th class.

Young Rebels, Morgan Llywelyn

This novel tells the story of two boys who take part in the 1916 rising. They are both students at St. Enda's School in Rathfarnham and deemed too young to take part in the rebellion. However they disobey orders and become caught up in the events of Easter 1916. This is a story of friendship and hardship, of education and courage that will appeal to 10 to 12 year olds. A follow up visit to the Pearse Museum in Rathfarnham is a must.
