CASTLETYMON LIBRARY

AUGUST 2026 EVENTS GUIDE

HERITAGE WEEK:
DUBLIN'S HUGUENOTS - SMALL
COMMUNITY, HUGE IMPACT
WITH HISTORIAN CATHY SCUFFIL

Monday 17th August at 6.30pm

Dublin's Huguenot community were French Protestant refugees fleeing persecution in Catholic France in late 1600s/early 1700s. Of the estimated 10,000 who settled in Ireland, almost half that number moved to Dublin. They brought skills, capital and international connections leaving not only an outsized influence, but also lasting evidence in Dublin's place names, surnames, banking, textile and other industries, architecture, religious life, legals, literature, the arts, academia and way of life.

Join historian Cathy Scuffil as she explores this evidence and how this small community's legacy still influences our daily lives today.

Booking from Wednesday 4th August at 10am.
