GIY (Grow It Yourself) Group

The group is not meeting in January.
Next meeting Thursday 13th February

GIY is an emerging global movement of people who grow their own food. The Clondalkin group is facilitated by Ann McEwan and Dermot Doyle and meets once a month to discuss topics from ecology to growing spuds. New members always welcome. No booking required.

Genealogy & Family History Group Thursday 16th January at 6.30pm

This group, facilitated by Eileen Brady, meets once a month to share resources and knowledge on tracing your ancestry and uncovering your family history. This month there is a special talk with invited speakers. See inside the brochure for details.

Crafternoon Craft Circle

Every Saturday between 10.00 am and 12.00 noon, this group meets to knit and crochet. The group has no leader or teacher - just enthusiastic handcrafters eager to learn and happy to share advice and tips. There is no need to book.

Library at Home One day per month

Books delivered to your home. A free and confidential service available to those with reduced mobility. If you or someone you know would benefit from this service, please contact the library.

Genealogy Talk with Cathy Scuffil and Maria O'Reilly

Thursday 16th January at 6.30 pm

We all know that tracing family records in Ireland can be challenging, meaning the Irish genealogist must be inventive and open-minded about different sources.

This talk will show multiple approaches in building 'his/her story', concentrating on the story of one Dublin family from two different viewpoints, that of a local historian and a genealogist. Our speakers are local historian Cathy Scuffil and genealogist Maria O'Reilly

All welcome. There is no need to book.

Helping Children Cope with Anxiety (part of Healthy Ireland)

Tuesday 28th January at 6.30 pm

Some degree of anxiety is a normal part of life but for some children and teens it can become overwhelming and hold them back. This workshop with psychotherapist Deirdre O'Shea will focus on tips and tools to help children and teens who experience anxiety. Suitable for adults only.
